Kasha!

(kasha means "question")

How would you answer this question on the Parsha?

Lloyd Quinnsstein from Leeds wrote:

Why was Aharon punished for the incident of the water from the rock? According to the text, it seems Aharon played no role there. If Moshe was punished for hitting the rock instead of speaking to it, what did Aharon do wrong?

Dear Lloyd Quinnsstein,

According to the commentary of the Abarbanel, you're right: Aharon was not being punished for the incident of the water from the rock; rather, he was denied entry into the Land of Israel because of his role in the Golden Calf. But because his intentions had been pure (he agreed to make the calf only in order to stall the people until Moshe's return, hoping thus to minimize their guilt) the Torah downplays the "golden calf" aspect of his punishment, and instead faults him here in the relatively minor sin of the incident of the water from the rock.

I Did Not Know That!

When Miriam died, the people didn't properly eulogize and mourn for her, because they didn't realize the extent of her greatness. Thus, Hashem caused the water to cease when she died, showing the people that for 40 years in the dessert, the water flowed in the merit of Miriam.
